
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
GIUSEPPE CIVITARESE
1 Why Bion? Why now? Novel forms and the mystical quest	9
LISSA WEINSTEIN
2 ‘Psycho-analysis, I believe’ in Wonderland: reading and literature in A Memoir of the Future	36
SARA BOFFITO
3 Bion and the apes: the bridging problem of A Memoir of the Future	49
BENJAMIN H. OGDEN
4 Memoir of the Future and memoir of the numinous	65
MAURO MANICA
5 A Memoir of the Future and the defence against knowledge	79
ANTONINO FERRO
6 Bion’s razor: reading A Memoir of the Future	85
GIOVANNI FORESTI

7	Memories of the future, realisations in the present. The oneiric destiny of pre-conceptions that turn up in the minds of dreamers	101
	VIOLET PIETRANTONIO
8	The ineffable	120
	AVNER BERGSTEIN
9	Psychoanalysis ‘at the mind’s limits’: trauma, history and paronomasia as ‘a flower of speech’ in A Memoir of the Future	147
	CLARA MUCCI
10	The ‘Memoir’ experienced from the standpoint of contemporary art: a chronicle of a death foretold	168
	ADELA ABELLA
11	Reflections on ‘nonsense’ in A Memoir of the Future	179
	DUNCAN CARTWRIGHT
	References	203
	Index	215